It was easy to assemble, but some of the screws were missing.

The park is beautiful and well-maintained, but the entrance fee is too expensive.

The "24/7 support" is a great feature, but it's clearly an automated chatbot.

The user community is very helpful, but the official documentation is lacking.

The game is incredibly fun, but the in-app purchases are predatory.

The car handles beautifully, but the infotainment system is clunky and slow.

The glasses look great, but the prescription feels slightly off.

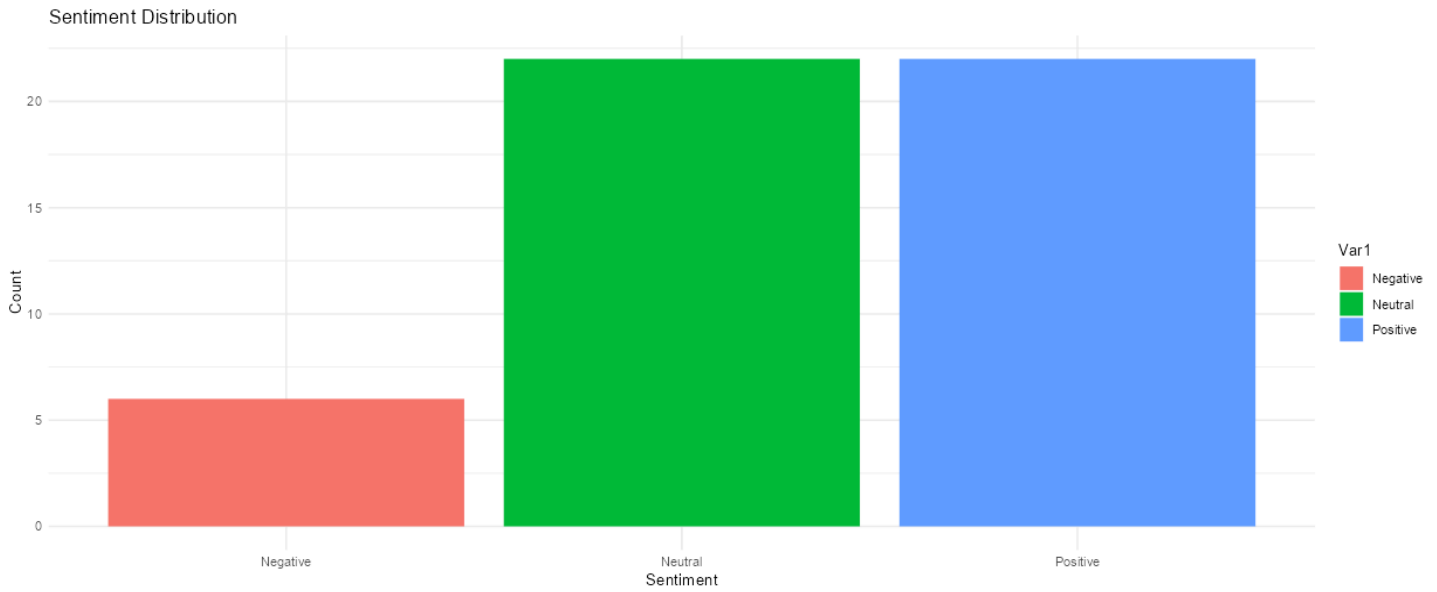

It integrated with my other devices easily, but the initial setup was a pain.

The lawn care team is very reliable, but they keep leaving the gate open.

The core product is solid, but their customer support is the worst I've ever experienced.
